

A big thank you to everyone who contributed to making Carnival such a success. The children looked quite stunning in their costumes. Thank you also to Richard and Sharon Simpson, from Cummin Up, for providing the food - it was delicious. The whole event was a lovely way to end the half term. Pictures of the procession appeared in the Mercury on 5th November. We will also be putting some pictures on the school website over the next week.

We have several classes going out on trips next week. YR1 are visiting the Planetarium at Greenwich on Monday and YR5&6 are visiting the BBC for a behind the scenes tour on Tuesday.

YR3 AND YR4 IMPACT WORKSHOPS

We have had a good response to the IMPACT Workshops which are taking place on Wednesday for YR3 and Friday for YR4 at 9.00am. If you have not yet returned a slip for the event please can you return it early next week.

CLUB NEWS

Polish club started this week on Thursday lunchtime. All the places for this club have been allocated.

Violin tuition will be on Monday 10th next week due to the KS2 BBC trip.

We would like to remind all children who are learning an instrument to please remember to take them home after the lesson. We are having difficulty finding storage space for uncollected instruments.

GUITAR LESSONS

Unfortunately Suliman, our guitar teacher, has been unwell this term and will not be returning before January. Children in guitar club are being encouraged to take their guitars home to practice.

STAFF NEWS

Mrs Brophy is starting 2 weeks Jury Service on Monday 10th November. Asia Chesiak and Alison Percy will be working in the reception class.

The following classes will require cover next week:

Tues 11th YR4 Lena El Sayed to cover

CONKER COMPETITION

The winners of this year's conker competition were YR2 who collected 1105 conkers. Reception collected 81 conkers and YR1 collected 563. Well done to all our conker collectors.
